Details

Avison Young is please to present the opportunity to lease a high exposure office property on Mountain Avenue. This offering is comprised of office space from 2,395 sf up to 21,000 sf. A great location with many amenities close by, this space will be desirable to suburban office tenants with a high parking demand.

Location Highlights

Inkster Industrial Park has long been one of the premier industrial areas in The City of Winnipeg. Development has been restricted through zoning regulations so that the neighborhood presents an attractive appearance with well designed buildings and generous open space.

Property Profile

Over the years, as the city and province grew, so did the circulation of the Winnipeg Free Press. By the mid-1980s, the Free Press had outgrown its once-grand downtown quarters at 300 Carlton Street and began developing plans for construction of a $150-million plant on Mountain Avenue, in the city's northwestern corner. Completed in 1991, the new building and its equipment represented the state-of-the-art in newspaper technology. The three computerized presses are capable of world-class colour reproduction and can each print newspapers at a rate of 75,000 per hour. Now, recent restructuring has made surplus office space available.
