CBRE

A LEADER IN COLLABORATIVE LIFE SCIENCE CAMPUSES

Over the last 28 years, Alexandria has established itself as the leading owner, operator, and developer of collaborative campuses for life science, agtech, and technology companies in North America's top innovation clusters.

Alexandria's cluster model unites cutting-edge science and technology with leading scientific and managerial talent and strategic investment capital in best-in-class locations immediately adjacent to top academic institutions.

Their mission is to create and grow life science ecosystems and clusters that ignite and accelerate the world's leading innovators in their noble pursuit to advance human health.

Strategically located between the Nexus 40-13 Park in Saint-Laurent and Cite de la Biotech in Laval, Alexandria is offering six prestigious assets that provide 153,000 square feet of turnkey, purpose-built life science space for lease. These assets are readied to the specific requirements and high standards of modern life science users, so that tenants can begin creating their best work and continue to be pioneers in their respective fields.

NEXUS 40-13 PARK

Located in Saint-Laurent, Nexus 40-13 is a premier business park which offers a spacious campus setting within 25 minutes of downtown Montreal and is adjacent to the Montréal-Pierre-Elliott-Trudeau International Airport. The campus extends along the intersection of highways 40 and 13 and is surrounded by a deep talent pool from of the West Island and Laval.
