Bringing Your Business and the Community Together

Elgin Park is an expertly designed business hub in South Surrey with connections to an expansive network of amenities. The modern architecture is situated in a highly visible location between 148 Street and King George Boulevard and provides facilities designed to bring neighbours together, including a daycare and a restaurant pad. This beautiful 4-building plaza offers over 110,000 SF of retail and office space for lease.

Perfectly positioned in Elgin Park, your business will be at the heart of South Surrey's growing community.

Access Everything you Need in Minutes

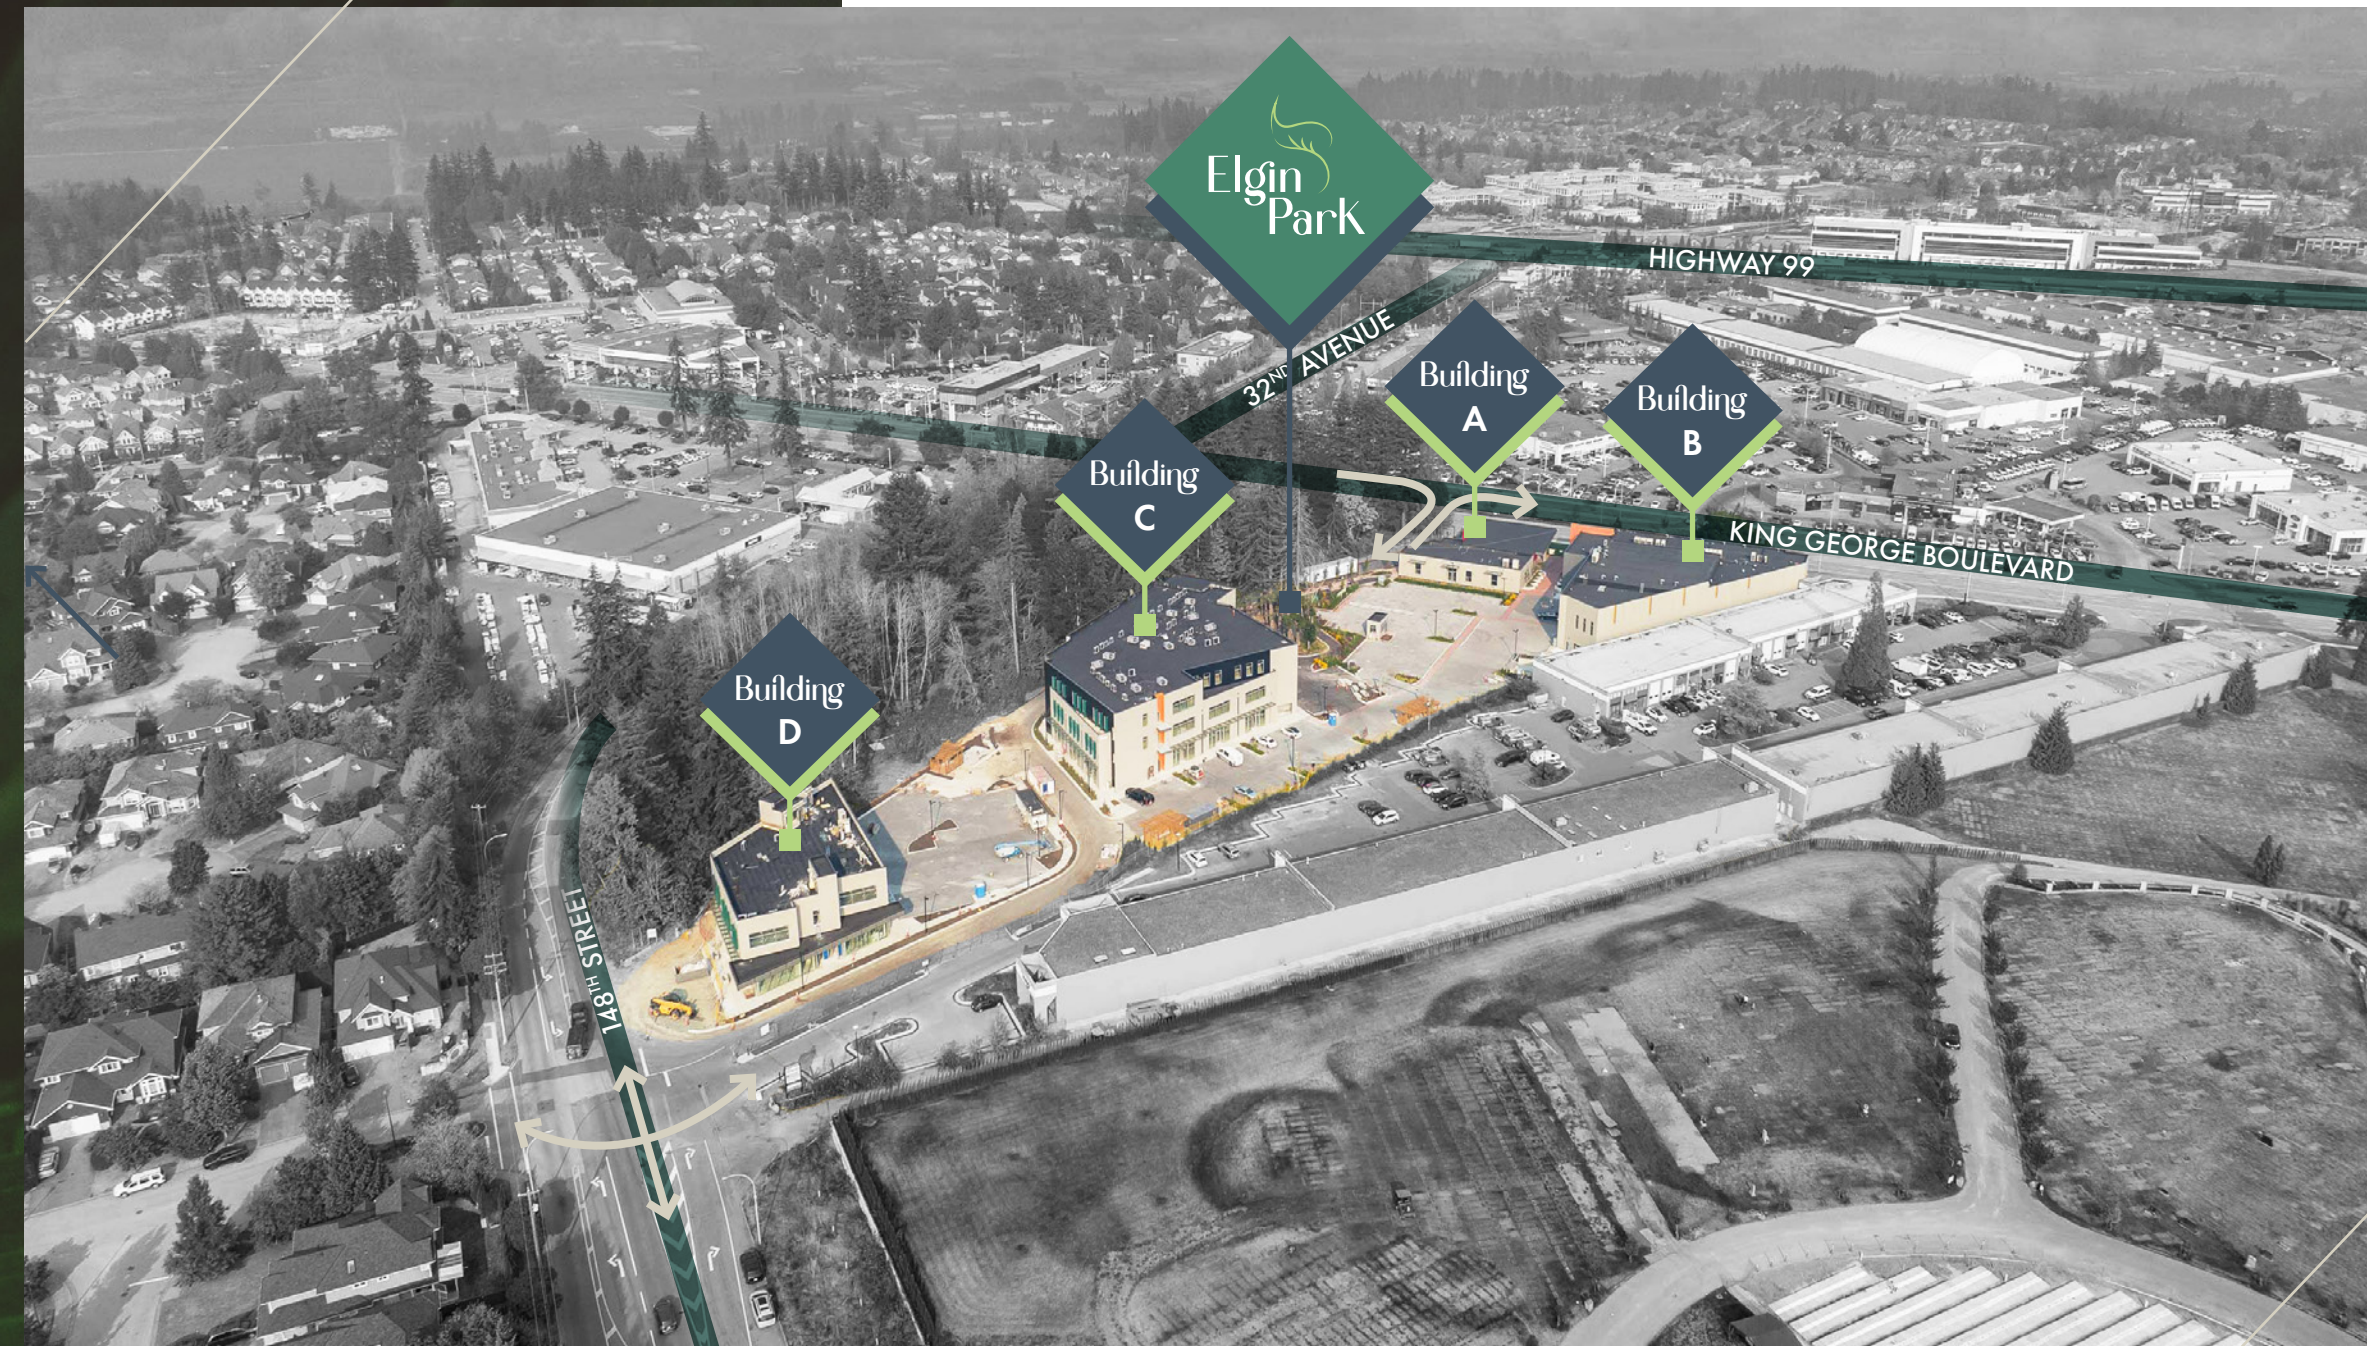

Connect your business with this expanding neighbourhood and thrive with the abundant shops, services, restaurants, and more.

Elgin Park is ideally positioned to attract drive by and foot traffic. This high-exposure area near the junction of 148 Street and King George Boulevard provides two access points to the plaza, designed to keep traffic flowing smoothly even during peak times. Tenants and visitors have exceptional access to amenities, including dining and entertainment establishments, and a wide variety of shops and services. Public transportation is a convenient alternative to driving with major bus stops along King George Boulevard and the South Surrey Park & Ride within two kilometers of the plaza.

Just minutes from Highway 99, Elgin Park provides easy access to surrounding communities and resources.
