SURROUNDING NEIGHBOURHOOD

Located along a prominent commercial corridor in Laval, 2550 Daniel-Johnson benefits from a practical and well-established business environment that supports a wide range of office users.

The surrounding neighbourhood is characterized by a strong concentration of corporate offices, professional services, and retail destinations, creating a steady flow of daytime activity and business synergy. Nearby commercial hubs such as Centropolis and Carrefour Laval provide a wide selection of restaurants, cafés, and services, offering convenient options for employees and client meetings.

The area is easily accessible by car, with direct connections to major routes including Autoroute 15 and Autoroute 440, making it a practical location for commuting and regional travel. This accessibility supports businesses that rely on efficient movement across Laval and the greater Montreal region.

Surrounded by a balanced mix of commercial activity and everyday amenities, the neighbourhood offers a functional and convenient setting for businesses seeking a well-positioned address with essential services close at hand.
