GET TO KNOW PLACE GARE VIGER

Place Gare Viger is a mixed-use urban campus that is transforming the heart of Old Montreal. The development includes office space, retail, residential, and hotel space. It is also home to a number of cultural and community amenities, such as a public library, a park, and a pedestrian plaza.

The vision for Place Gare Viger is to create a vibrant and sustainable community that is a hub for innovation and creativity. The development is well-connected to public transit and is located within walking distance of many of Montreal’s most popular attractions.

The opportunity to join one of the finest mixed-use urban neighborhoods in the country lies within the brand new urban office building located at 700 Saint-Hubert Street.
